

I am a supporter of K-Love Radio. I decided to commit to their support as I lost an 18-yr-old son to suicide as he listened to rock music. I want people, young & old, to know there is good, Christian music that provides hope, encouraging, and life-giving messages.